

Vega Foods management calls on Otumfuo

By John K. Essel,
Kumasi

THE Country Manager of the Unique Star Foods Limited, Mr D.P. Mohanty, last Wednesday paid a courtesy call on the Asantehene, Otumfuo Osei Tutu II, at the Manhyia Palace in Kumasi in the Ashanti Region.

Mr Mohanty, who led a five-member delegation of Unique Star Foods Limited, the local agents of Vega Foods Pte Limited of Singapore, was at the palace to brief the Asantehene Otumfuo Osei Tutu II, about the operations and activities of the company and introduce the company to Otumfuo in the region.

Unique Star Foods Limited is one of the leading distributors of a range of products including edible oils, tomato paste, pasta, dairy products, seasonings, canned fish and meat.

Others are confectionery products, mayonnaise, savoury snacks and drinks.

Speaking at the meeting, Otumfuo Osei Tutu II commended the company for investing in the country to help reduce unemployment.

He said Kumasi was a very vibrant place and, therefore, any businessman who invested there would never regret investment.

Otumfuo Osei Tutu II pledged his personal support and that of Manhyia Palace to ensure that the company succeeds in the region.

Responding, Mr Mohanty said the company was not only interested in making profit in the country, but also committed to actively supporting in the development of sports and job creation, by offering financial support and employment to the people in the country.

He pledged his company's continuing support the efforts to promote sports and develop the country.

Mr Mohanty, later presented a cheque for GH¢2,000 to support the Otumfuo Educational Fund and GH¢1,000 to support the funeral of the late brother of Otumfuo.

Other members of the delegation were Mr Amitabha Das, the Ashanti Regional Manager, Mr Kini Nandera, Regional Sales Manager, Mr Annu Philip Chacko, Regional Finance Manager and Mr Kwaku Ofori, Manager.

• Otumfuo Osei Tutu II engaged in a discussion with the Management of Vega Foods. Picture by JOHN K. ESSEL